CHARLES-TOWN, Printed at PETER TIMOTHY's (the OLDEST) Office, in BROAD-STREET.

SOUTH-CAROLINA.

By the honourable WILLIAM BULL, Esq; Lieutenant Governor and Commander in chief in and over the said Province;

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS it hath been represented unto me, by LEWIS VALENTINE FEBRE, Esq; commander of His Majesty's troops in this province, that several of the Soldiers under his command have lately deserted, and do still continue to desert; and that they are harboured and concealed by some persons, to the detriment of His Majesty's service: FOR PREVENTION WHEREOF, and in order to deter people from harbouring and concealing them in future, I HAVE THOUGHT FIT, by the advice of His Majesty's honourable Council, to issue this my PROCLAMATION, hereby requiring all Magistrates and Constables, or other civil Officers, in obedience to the directions of the act of parliament "for punishing Mutiny and Desertion in America," to apprehend, or cause to be apprehended, all persons whom they shall reasonably suspect to be such deserters, and finding them, on examination to be such, to commit them to the goal in Charles-Town, and to transmit an account thereof to me, or to the commanding officer of the forces within this province, as they will answer the neglect thereof at their peril. AND WHEREAS it is provided in and by the said act, that if any person shall harbour, conceal or assist any deserter from His Majesty's service, within his Majesty's dominions in America, knowing him to be such, the person so offending, shall forfeit for every such offence, the sum of FIVE POUNDS sterling; or if any person shall knowingly detain, buy or exchange any arms, cloaths, caps, or other furniture belonging to the King, from any soldier or deserter, or any other person, upon any account or pretence whatsoever, within His Majesty's said dominions in America, the person so offending, shall forfeit for every such offence, the sum of FIVE POUNDS sterling: I DO THEREFORE hereby strictly forbid all persons whatsoever, any ways to offend against the terms of the said act, on pain of being prosecuted with the utmost severity, according to the directions of the said act, and also of incurring such other penalties as the law may inflict.

GIVEN under my Hand, and the Great Seal of the said province, at Charles Town, this Seventeenth Day of June, One Thousand Seven Hundred and Sixty-eight, and in the Eighth Year of his Majesty's Reign.

WILLIAM BULL.

By his Honour's Command,
THOMAS SHOTTOWE, Secretary.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

CHARLES-TOWN, JUNE 20.

THE salary of his Excellency General Woodley, as Governor of His Majesty's Leeward Charribbee-Islands is £. 1200 sterling per annum: In his first speech to the Council and Assembly of ANTIGUA, he tells them he has it in charge to recommend the passing an Act of Settlement, which he hopes will be the first thing they take into their consideration: Accordingly the Assembly of that Island (conforming to his Majesty's 86th instruction to him) have voted a settlement of £. 1200 that currency per annum, during his government, to be paid him quarterly; and also a house to be provided for him at the public expence.

Copy of his Majesty's 86th instruction to his Excellency General Woodley, which his Excellency referred to in his first speech to the Assembly of Antigua in April last.

"Whereas it has been represented, that the salary of Twelve hundred pounds sterling per ann. which his late Majesty hath heretofore thought fit to allow out of the duty of four and half per cent. arising in our Leeward Islands, for our Governor in chief of those Islands is not at present sufficient for his support and the dignity of that our Government; we have taken the same into consideration, and are graciously pleased to permit and allow, that the respective Assemblies of our said Islands may, by any act or acts, settle upon you such sum or sums of money in addition to your salary of Twelve hundred pounds per ann. as they shall think proper; and you are hereby allowed to give your assent to any act or acts of Assembly for that purpose; provided that such sum or sums be settled upon you and your successors in that Government, or at least on you during the whole time of your Government there; and that the same be done by the first respective Assemblies of our said Islands after your arrival there, before they proceed upon any other business."

John Stuart, Esq; his Majesty's Superintendent of Indian affairs for the Southern district of North-America, who went out of town the 25th past, on a visit to his brother at Beaufort, Port-Royal, returned to town from thence, last Tuesday in good health.

The election in Georgia is over, and all things again quiet there. The new Assembly was to have met at Savannah the 1st instant; but his Excellency Governor Wright, by proclamation, dated the 31st of May, prorogued its meeting to the 7th of November, on account of the inconvenient season for sitting, and there being no immediate necessity for holding the same.

Captain Josiah Dickinson, just arrived in 16 days from Pensacola, informs us, that the Grantham Packet-Boat Captain John Innes, was to sail for this place the day after him, with Capt. Hope and other passengers on board: That Lieutenant-Governor Browne was arrived at Mobile, on his return from the Interior parts of his government: That a Brigt. from London, with a large quantity of money on board, was arrived at Mobile: That he heard of no disturbances with any Indians: And that, tho' they now had plenty of goods for the Spanish trade at Pensacola, there was not a Spanish vessel at that port while he continued there.

"On Tuesday last the Honourable John Stuart, Esq; Superintendant of Indian Affairs, returned from the Southward.

"About the Middle of last Month, the Deputies appointed by the Creek Indians, to mark out and run the Boundary-Line between their Hunting-Grounds and Georgia, arrived at Mr. Galphin's, on Savannah River; being, with their Attendants, twenty-eight in Number. On the 6th inst. they set out with the Superintendant's Deputy and the Commissioners appointed by the Governor of Georgia, in order to perform the said Service.

"We have the Pleasure of informing the Public, that in Consequence of the Promises made by the Creek Indians to the Superintendant, when they met him last Year at Augusta, and of repeated Demands since made by him and Governor Wright, the said Indians have delivered to Mr. Commissary Mackintosh seven of the fugitive Slaves, belonging to this Province and Georgia, who had taken Refuge in the Creek Towns: The others, nine in Number, made their Escape, and were pursued by the Indians, who brought in and delivered one of their Scalps to the Commissary, the Day he set out from their Nation for Augusta, where he brought the seven first mentioned.

"Mr. Mackintosh after many meetings, conferences, and Altercation with the Lower Creeks, has at last, with much Difficulty, prevailed upon them to give Satisfaction for the Murder committed last Year on St. Mary's River: They have put one of the Murderers to Death, and promise to punish, in the same Manner, another who was principally concerned.

"The Creeks are very desirous of a Peace with the Chickesaws and Choctaws, and have for some Time past restrained all their Parties from going out to War against those Indians." [WELLS's Gaz. June 17.]
